

Native American Tribe 1-Pager

We will begin our unit by looking at the diverse array of American Indian civilizations that existed in North America. To further our understanding, you will create a “One Pager” on one of the tribes:

Algonquians	Crow	Navajo	Seneca
Apache	Hidatsa	Nez Perce	Shoshone
Blackfoot	Hopi	Oneida	Sioux
Cherokee	Inuit	Paiute	Wampanoag
Cheyenne	Iroquois	Pueblo	Wichita
Chinook	Mohawk	Pomo	Zuni
Comanche	Mojave	Salish
Cree	Muscogee	Seminole

If you would like to select a tribe that is not listed here, please check with the teacher.

A 1-Pager is an excellent tool to communicate your understanding of the material in a unique way. Please be creative in how you present what you learned about this tribe. It should fill the page, be neat, colorful, and show care for the content. Your 1-Pager must include information on all of the following for your tribe:

1. Geographic Location

This can include a visual map or description of where in North America this tribe lived. This should also include details about the geography, such as weather, environment, and geographic features of the region that impacted the tribe.

2. Housing

What kind of housing did your tribe have? Was it permanent or housing that fit their nomadic lifestyle? How did their environment impact their housing? Images are good to include to help people visualize what their housing looked like.

3. Clothing

Research what men and women from the tribe generally dressed in. If you can find visuals those would be good to include as well.

4. Crafts

What are some of the crafts or art pieces that members of your tribe are known for?

5. Cultural Characteristics

This can include any interesting things you learn about the tribe’s culture. That might be the kind of food they ate, work that was done, structure of their government, trade and interactions with others, etc.

6. Religious Beliefs

Research the religious beliefs of your tribe and briefly summarize them. What ceremonies were important to them and did they have religious leaders in their communities?

You must use multiple sources to discover the required information about your tribe. The attached rubric can be used to ensure that you do the best you can and include all the required information.
